Main regulations

Art1 : "Coupe du Centenaire" is a purely touristic event. There will be no 'races' with the cars but only demonstration on open roads for leisure.

Art2 : The event is organized for a maximum of 100 crews. Each crew is composed of two persons. Only completed Entry Forms will be taken into consideration. The Organizing committee reserves the right to decide about the selection of cars.

Art3 : Drivers must have a driving licence valid in France. Every cars must be covered with a third party insurance policy valid in France. Each participant takes part in the event at his own risk and will be responsible on a legal basis for any damage caused by himself or his vehicle. He certifies that his vehicle is road legal, duly registered , and has a valid insurance covering passengers and third party liability.

Art4 : "Coupe du Centenaire" is a touring event and not a sporting event or a rally. Therefore each participant must respect at all times the French traffic legislation and the environment.

Art5 : To record your booking, we need your payment of € 300,00 to the name of Touquet Automobiles de Collection together with this entry form and a picture of your car before the 30th March. Cancellation request must be sent to us. The paid entry fee will be refunded according to the following conditions :

Until the end of May : all the funds given will be reimbursed

Between the 1st June and the 15th June : half of the entry fee will be kept.

After June 15th : funds will be fully retained by the organisation

Art6 : At that time there will be no specialized mechanical assistance but as we won't be too far from a trailer : we can help you in that matter.

Art7 : The belowsigning participant of the event waives in advance and in all respects any claims for damages and any claims of rights whatsoever against the organizers. The Organizing committee reserves the right to decide about changes in the program for safety, or organizational reasons or by order of the civil authorities.

Art8 : All participants to the event agree that their picture, taken during the event can be used without further permission, for, but not limited to: publication in future documentations or promotional material for the club's activities, publication in magazines or websites reporting about the present event.
